F Grouping: Any question can be designated a grouping question.

Simply put this means that if you want to see, in questions asked after a grouping question what the split was in the current question, of say, Males and Females, we can show the answer instantly, as long as the grouping question has been asked before.

Please tell us if any of your questions are grouping questions.

C2 Multiple Choice - there is a correct answer by number vote polling end in a different colour.

eg: How many basis points did the Reserve Bank drop interest rates by last week ?
